WIFLE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

BACKGROUND

The WIFLE Foundation, Inc. and Women in Federal Law Enforcement, Inc. (both know as WIFLE) are organizations with a goal to achieve gender equity within federal law enforcement through the recruitment, retention and promotion of qualified women.

In June 2010, the U.S. Department of Justice, Bureau of Justice Statistics announced that as of 2008 (the most recent statistics available) women represented 15.2% of federal officers among reporting agencies. That percentage is lower than the 16.1% reported by the BJS in July 2006. There remains much to be done to achieve gender balance within the federal agencies. It is in the spirit of achieving this goal that WIFLE offers Scholarships.

THE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Purpose:

WIFLE offers several scholarships to talented individuals to meet the demands in the field of law enforcement and to foster the professional development of those engaged in Law Enforcement. The dollar amount of each scholarship will be $2,500 but can vary based on numerous factors. WIFLE awarded $10,000 in scholarships in 2016. Awards may be renewable on subsequent applications.

Eligibility

WIFLE scholarships are awarded based on a student's academic potential, achievement, and commitment to serving communities in the field of law enforcement. The scholarship is open to all eligible persons. To be eligible for the scholarship, the applicant must:

- Physically attend and be a full-time student at an accredited four-year college or university; or be currently enrolled in a full-time in a fully accredited community college with the intention of transferring to a four-year degree;
- Have completed at least one full academic year of college work at an accredited college or university or community college;
- Major in Criminal Justice or related discipline such as social sciences, public administration, computer science, finance, linguistic arts, chemistry, physics, etc., leading to a four-year degree (Students in graduate and postgraduate programs are also eligible; students pursuing Associate degrees are not eligible, unless as stated above, fully articulate in the application their intention to transfer to a four-year program.);

- Have a minimum 3.0 overall grade point (GPA) average;
- Demonstrate a commitment to the community through a 500-word essay describing their involvement in a community project, and the results or impact of that involvement to the community; OR, if the applicant is currently serving or has served an internship with a law enforcement agency, preferably a federal law enforcement agency, the applicant must provide details including the name of the agency, the dates served and describe the value of the experience and the accomplishment through the internship in a 500-word essay;
- Have at least one community leader or member of a community or police official sponsor their application with a written statement of support;
- Submit a completed application with the required information, 500-word essay, transcripts, and a recommendation letter from a community leader or police official;
- Be a citizen of the United States.
