*Combined Federal Campaign National Capital Area for WIFLE Foundation, Inc.
CFC # 29777*

This is the second year the WIFLE Foundation, Inc. is participating in the Combined Federal Campaign National Capital Area.

Our work consists of providing leadership-training opportunities to all federal personnel. Each year we organize and hold an education-training event for Federal law enforcement employees. Additionally, we hold an executive leadership training program targeting those interested in pursuing or are already in the Senior Executive Service ranks. We arrange an annual Human Trafficking seminar which examines the best practices in combating this crime domestically and internationally. For 14 years, we have awarded scholarships to women pursuing college degrees in a law enforcement related field. These scholarships have helped many women continue their education and enter into their desired career in federal law enforcement. We recognize the heroic contributions of women and honor those who continue to remove the systemic barriers to the recruitment and retention of women in federal law enforcement through the annual WIFLE Award Program. We advocate for the improvement of the status of women in federal law enforcement by issuing model policies and guidance, most recently the pregnancy policy. We partner with agencies to recruit women and targeted women veterans in our efforts. We are the leading organization that conducts research on women in federal law enforcement and share that research with agencies and federal employees to better assist agencies in designing their recruitment programs and retention policies.
