The Bill Bransford Helping Hands Fund provides much needed grants to federal employees for whom repayment of even a no-interest FEEA loan would create undue hardship. Since December 2013, the fund has provided over $17,500 in grants to federal employees facing difficult situation like house fires, floods, and financial difficulties due to medical issues

Bill, who passed away in October 2013, was known as a champion of the federal workforce and dedicated his profession to advocating on behalf of federal employees. This fund recognizes that dedication and ensures that his legacy continues to truly help those in need.
