SHEREE MIXELL

In 2021, Sheree L. Mixell was selected as the Chair of the Board of Directors, WIFLE Foundation, Inc., and WIFLE, Inc. Ms. Mixell previously served as Vice President/Deputy Executive Director of the WIFLE Foundation, Inc. and WIFLE, Inc. respectfully.

After 25 years of distinguished law enforcement service, Ms. Mixell retired January 31, 2013, as the ATF Special Agent in Charge of the Philadelphia Field Division. As the SAC, she directed ATF's law enforcement operations and industry regulation activities of special agents, industry operations investigators, task force officers, and administrative staff, throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Ms. Mixell also served on ATF's Director's Advisory Committee that advises on policy, management and operational issues impacting ATF offices around the country. In 2007, Ms. Mixell was selected to participate in ATF's Senior Executive Service (SES) program. Ms. Mixell has attended executive development programs at the University of Virginia, Treasury Executive Institute, Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) Executive Leadership Program, and the White House Offices of Cabinet Affairs and Presidential Personnel. Ms. Mixell has been a member of the federal Senior Executive Service since 2009, when she earned her OPM SES Certification. In December of 2011, she was promoted to Special Agent in Charge, Philadelphia Field Division.

She began her career in law enforcement with the United States Secret Service in Washington, DC. In 1990, she became an agent with ATF. In 1997, she was promoted to ATF Headquarters as a Program Manager in the Office of Liaison and Public Information. She also served as the Group Supervisor for the Washington Field Division Intelligence Group and Regional Crime Gun Center. In this capacity, she coordinated ATF support to major events and investigations, which included the 2001 Presidential Inauguration, the International Monetary Fund (IMF)/World Bank events and the Pentagon investigation on September 11, 2001. She was later promoted to the Chief of the Office of Public Affairs at ATF's National Headquarters serving as the agency's national spokesperson. She also served as the Assistant Special Agent in Charge of ATF's Baltimore Field Division.

Ms. Mixell received numerous Department of Treasury and Department of Justice Special Act and Service Awards and was named a Woman of Distinction by the Philadelphia Business Journal. She has served as the Vice President and President of the WIFLE Executive Committee and is a founding and lifetime member of the organization. She is a graduate of Indiana University where she earned a Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice.
